

Antonio Rosciglione - BArch, R.A. Vice President, Program Management, Sr. Manager – Aviation

Years of Experience

32

Education

BArch, Architecture, New Jersey Institute

Of Technology, Newark, NJ

Credentials

Licensed Architect (RA) NY

OSHA Construction 10-Hour

Professional Affiliations

American Institute of Architects (AIA)

Construction Managers Association of America (CMAA)

ACE Mentors

Areas of Expertise

Program/Construction Management

Leed Construction

Integrated Project Delivery

Guaranteed Maximum Price

Design-Build/Design-Bid-Build

Summary

Over 32 years of experience in the Construction, Architectural/Engineering, and Construction Management industries. This includes experience in Project/Program/Construction management, Quality assurance (QA) inspection, contract and code compliance, conflict resolution, contract document interpretation, cost estimation, schedule and cost control, contract administration, and agency/designer coordination.

Experience

New Terminal One JFK International Airport Redevelopment – Project Director of Design the $9.5 Billion Design Build of Airside & Landside Civil and Demolition packages for the construction of the New Terminal One. Design Build services related to all landside and airside underground utilities (TDS lines, Sanitary, Power, Communications & Drainage), airside paving, at grade and elevated roadways for arrivals and departures, Hydrant Fueling and associate Construction Administration services for the duration of Construction. Oversee the Design Project Team and coordinate with the Tishman AECOM and Owner input to deliver and implement design packages in a timely manner to the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey (PANYNJ). Extensive interaction with owner, contractor and PANYNJ.

American Airlines Terminal 8 JFK International Airport Construction Expansion – Asst. Program Manager: $300 million to construct and commission expansion terminal at John F. Kennedy Airport as part of an Integrated Project Delivery (IPD) approach. Manage the Design Team along with Contractor and Owner input to deliver design packages in a timely manner to the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey (PANYNJ). Working closely with the Discipline Leads and Design Manager to coordinate necessary field investigations, archival review and Contractor input. Extensive interaction with owner, contractor and PANYNJ. Maintain schedule and monitor budget.

MTA/MTACC, East Side Access. Project Management and Inspection Services for CM014B, Long Island Railroad Concourse Fit out at Grand Central Terminal, New York – Deputy Construction Manager: Handling all aspects of Construction related activities on a $430-million fit out of a new passenger concourse. Responsible for construction management, staffing, high level coordination of other project packages, coordination of designers and general contractor and review of schedule and cost. Manage site staff and office resources. Variously meet and coordinate with Metro North Railroad, MTA oversight and liaison with adjacent stake holders via Community Outreach.

MTA/TBTA. Construction Management and Inspection Services for Project RK-65R, Central Maintenance North Facility on Randall's Island, New York. Construction Manager/Resident Engineer: Closely assisting the TBTA Project Manager on a $17.6-million Design-Build of a new Maintenance Facility. Responsible for construction management, special inspections, progress inspections and consulting services management. Manage site staff and office resources. Variously meet and coordinate with TBTA, design-build contractor and other agencies as required for the project. Monitor schedule and cost for TBTA. Successfully completed ahead of schedule and on budget.

Terminal 4 Delta JFK International Airport, Redevelopment Program, NY - Senior Program Manager: Closely assisting the Construction Administrator for $1.2-billion program to construct and commission new Taxiway Throats, a new 9-Gate Concourse Extension, Head House modifications, relocation of existing BHS and ticketing equipment, inline baggage screening systems, new security check point and Terminal Connector structure at John F. Kennedy International Airport. Also, responsible for prequalification and award of general contractor, construction manager, MWBE consultant and controlled testing and laboratory consulting services procurement. Assemble all components of bid documents. Coordinate constructability review of design documents and schematic design for program. Manage site staff and office resources. Variously meet and coordinate with Port Authority, Design Consultant, Owner and Contractor.

World Trade Center PATH Station Reconstruction, Downtown Design Partnership – Deputy, Project Controls: $2.4 billion project to reconstruct and commission transportation hub at the World Trade Center site. Coordinate various design disciplines for timely delivery of design packages to Port Authority of New York and New Jersey for issuance to Contractor for phased construction of new transportation hub as designed by Santiago Calatrava. Establish and monitor milestones for deliverables. Coordinate interdisciplinary responses to submittals and request for information. Review phasing and constructability of designs with Port Authority and Contractor.

American Airlines Terminal Construction – Project Architect: $1.3 billion to construct and commission new terminal at John F. Kennedy Airport. Every facet of new construction and associate life safety systems with review by Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. Working closely with the Lead Architect, responsible for architectural design and construction and building commissioning at JFK International Airport. Coordinated site related architectural/engineering coordination with other disciplines and American Airlines, architectural design of changes due to site conditions and client requests, architectural and engineering site inspection services including responding to contractor requests for information, life-safety and building code interpretation.
