

Mr. Walker is the Director for the FAA's Airports Division in the New England region. He has worked in aviation more than 25 years. Mr. Walker is an Accredited Airport Executive with AAAE and an IAP through ACI and is an instrument rated private pilot. He holds a bachelor's degree in airport management and a master's degree in public administration. Prior to working with the FAA, Mr. Walker worked for numerous airports throughout the country. He also held roles as a state aviation regulator, an airport tenant, and a pilot. He is actively involved with public administration and aviation industry organizations.