

Cameron Woods is the Environmental Coordinator at Nantucket Memorial Airport (ACK), where she oversees Airport environmental projects and policies with focus areas of Per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS) remediation efforts and habitat management. Cameron serves on the Massachusetts's Airport Management Association (MAMA) Board of Directors and co-chairs the legislative subcommittee. Prior to aviation management, Cameron worked in geopolitical intelligence and produced global ESG reports.